Looking to acquire telecommunications, networking or optical transmission hardware? Ghekko can help you!

When it comes to telecommunications, we are experts! We provide phones, headsets and systems to the telecommunications market but also networking equipment including servers, routers and switches and optical transmission hardware.

We offer a wide range of new and refurbished products from all the leading manufacturers like Avaya, Cisco, Ciena, Polycom and many more!

Most of our products are ready to deploy as we stock them in our warehouse in the UK.

One of our core competencies is the refurbishment of telecom equipment. We refurbish all the products in our labs and technology centre which enables us to supply the highest quality refurbished hardware and get it delivered to you as quickly as possible.

At Ghekko, we understand that each business has its own needs and will advise you on the telecom products that will suit you best. We also have in stock telecom equipment for remote workers.

There is no minimum order! Contact us now for more information on the products we sell or to request a quote, a member of our sales team will get in touch with you.
